JAN BARLOW COLLEGE OF BUSINESS SCHOLARSHIP

Jan (Ennis) Barlow was born and raised in Minot, ND. She graduated from Minot Model and from Minot State University in 1961 with a degree in Elementary and Business Education. Jan married Arden Barlow in 1961. Arden also graduated from Minot Model and from Minot State University in 1960 with a degree in Business Administration. Jan taught for a few years at Bel Air Grade School in Minot and then moved to Valley City where she was a teacher at Valley City High School and also chair of the Business Department. She owned the Valley City credit bureau and then became an agent for State Farm Insurance for many years. They moved back to Minot in 2007. Jan's Father, Harold B. Ennis, who was 94 years old at the time of this writing attended Minot State in the 1930's with help from an athletic scholarship. Harold received a teaching certification in 1940 and went on to serve as principal at the Clay Center near Lansford before working as a foreman at the Gavin Yards rail facility in Minot. Jan's daughter, Beth Hardy graduated from the MSU College of Business in 1992 and currently is the Financial Services Manager for Carolina Health Services. Brandon Ball who is a senior airman at Minot Air Force Base is taking classes at MSU making him the fourth generation of family who has attended Minot State.