JUROR

Born in Moscow, Russia, Victoria Goro-Rapoport graduated from Moscow Art College with a BFA in set design in 1985. Until her emigration from Russia in 1990, she worked with various puppet and drama theaters as a set designer. From 1990 until 1994, she lived in Jerusalem, Israel, where she was introduced to the technique of etching – her current primary means of artistic expression. In 1998 she earned her MFA in set design from the University of Utah, Salt Lake City. In 2002 she earned an MFA in printmaking from the University of Illinois at Urbana – Champaign. She is currently an Associate Professor of Drawing and Printmaking at the University of Nebraska at Kearney. She is an active studio artist. In the last five years she has participated in over 150 national and international juried exhibitions and has received 49 exhibition awards.

ELIGIBILITY

Works in any medium, on or of paper, traditional or experimental, including photographs, qualify. All works must be original and not measure over 60 inches in any direction. Work must be ready to exhibit, completed within the last two years, and not previously exhibited in an Americas 2000 exhibition. Two-dimensional work should be framed and protected by clear acrylic glazing.

ENTRY FORMAT

Entries will be judged from high resolution electronic images. Electronic files must be in jpg format, minimum of 300 dpi at approximately 8"x10". Submit files on a CD. Label the CD with the artist's name and address. Name electronic files as follows:

- A_titleofwork.jpg
- B_titleofwork.jpg
- C_titleofwork.jpg
- D_titleofwork.jpg
- E_titleofwork.jpg

Please double-check your entry disk. Images burned to disk via Picasa, iPhoto or similar programs may not include the proper file name. Abbreviate as needed on the electronic file name, but be sure the entry form has complete information. CDs will not be returned.
