

General Education Ad Hoc Committee
Year-End Report – 2007/2008

This ad hoc committee was instituted in February 2008 by the MSU Faculty Senate. The purpose of the committee is to conduct a thorough general education review, explore options for change, and report back to the campus the findings.

The committee is comprised of the following members: College of Arts & Sciences – Conrad Davidson, Andrea Donovan, Erik Anderson, Cheryl Nilsen, Alex Deufel, Ryan Winburn, Dan Ringrose; College of Business – Kristi Berg; College of Education & Health Sciences – Deb Olson; Library – Jane La Plante.

The VPAA's Office identified a general education training opportunity for this committee to partake. Several members of the committee are scheduled to attend the AAC&U General Education Institute in Minneapolis, Minnesota from May 30-June 4, 2008. Following the institute the committee plans to meet to discuss the outcome and plan for the upcoming academic year.

The chair for 2008-2009 is Andrea Donovan.
