Address by Dr. Fuller: Dr. Fuller spoke to the Staff Senate pertaining to undertakings on campus. He has spent a great deal of time at the legislature continuing to request funds to complete the Swain Hall renovation, along with a new boiler, and salary increases for campus employees. He briefed then explained how the campus has hired a consultant to look into geothermal energy for the campus. The university has also purchased an advertisement in the NW Traveler magazine to help address the enrollment challenges. The advertisement is meant to help retain people in North Dakota, and attract others from across the country.

Old Business:
Orientation Committee/Staff Handbook: Matt and Karen Humphreys briefed the senate on the Orientation Committee’s progress on the Staff Handbook. The committee is looking into producing a pamphlet that is user friendly that employees can store at their desks. The said that documents should be produced in about a month. The Committee would be taking a tour on Thursday March, 19 at 10:00 to get a feel of how to give new employees tours. Once the Handbook is complete the committee will need approval from other senates and cabinets.

NDUS Staff Senate: The NDUS Staff Senate is currently voting on their constitution and Nathan will email out any important documents from them and any future meeting dates that arise.

New Business:

Appreciation Banquet: The committee is looking for any feedback to help improve next year’s banquet.

Bathrooms: A few members of Staff Senate inquired about getting tissue liners for the toilets in the bathrooms. There have been a few complaints about the cleanliness of the bathrooms and employees were wondering if tissue liners would be an option or if they needed to discuss with Roger Kluck about getting them cleaned more often. Nathan said he would talk with Roger and report back.
