Minot State College Minot, North Dakota

Dedication

It is difficult to measure service and contributions to Minot State College in years or achievements. Such qualities are most intangible.

Selecting an individual worthy of a dedication is indeed a weighty task. We feel we have made a good choice. This teacher, administrator, director, author, counselor and friend has invested his time and talent in service to MSC for 37 years.

Also making an investment in students is his wife who has served Minot State College for 24 years as a campus school supervisor and teacher.

His concern for the welfare of students both now and in the future has remained uppermost in his undertakings. As a small dividend for his investment in us, we would like to say thank you to a most deserving and respected individual. To Dr. Grant M. Norem we proudly dedicate this the 1966 Beaver.

College . . . It has many and varied meanings. To the faculty it is a place to teach the leaders of tomorrow, to some students it is a place of fun and frolic and to others it is the key to the future.

A book, a grade or a party favor from college is merely a symbol or reminder of the past. A past that challenges each student to take the best of today and build upon it a better tomorrow.

Foreword

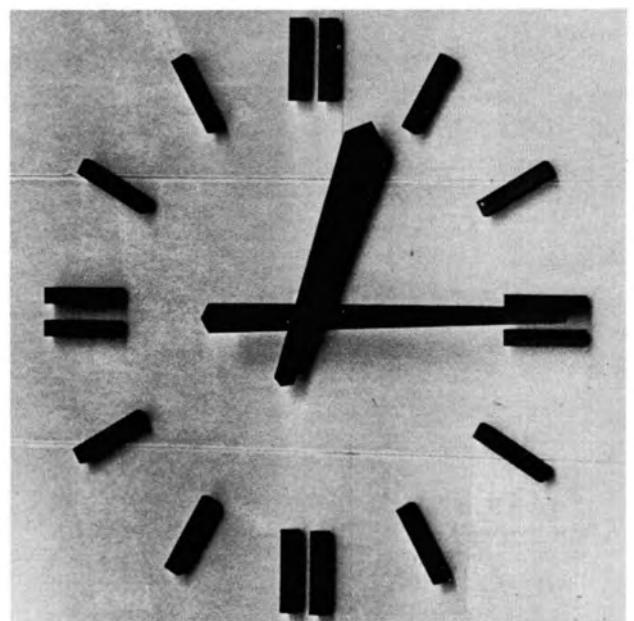

Remember These

In looking at college life there are many outstanding events such as Homecoming that we remember. But in recalling the year, we should not fail to remember the gab session in the Union, the freshman beanies, the parking spot we managed to squeeze into or the clock whose hands always moved too fast.

1964 Homecoming Queen Micki Turneau and the 1965 candidates, Ivadell Stokes, Janell Hoffert, Carol Skarphol, Sharon Johnson and Diana Jackson.

Science Building

Each year our campus administrators remove obsolete facilities and replace them with new ones. New buildings are added and old ones are torn down.

This is the Minot State College campus in 1966. It will remain like this for only a short while because "Time Changes All" and MSC is no exception.

And These Added Their Part

In addition to the memorable occasions there were also the necessities which cannot be forgotten.

The fire escape in case of alarm, the lowering of the ears by the barber and the relaxing card games were all part of the everyday routine. At times we got to show our initiative by taking leading roles in convocations or other facets such as leading the band. But usually general college life was enough to keep us occupied.

President Lura Commends Staff

GREETINGS:

The contributions of education to the welfare of people—individually and collectively—are solid, established fact. All informed persons know that sound education changes people and nations for the better in any variety of ways.

Minot State College continues to strive toward providing the best education possible to its students and to, in many additional important ways, serve its area people and communities.

This publication depicts life on our campus—the serious and the lighter facets of a fine college in operation. I am pleased to have this opportunity to congratulate the “Beaver” staff on the excellent results of their dedicated efforts.

Sincerely,

C. LURA

Davy's position is in promotion and growth of the college and in general administrative duties.

GARNET COX

Dean of Women

Known perhaps in name only to the majority of the student body, Miss Garnet Cox serves in the position of dean of women. Most male students know her as the reason why their dates have "hours" at night.

A graduate of the State University of New York, Miss Cox obtained a master of education degree from the University of Virginia. She did further work at the University of Virginia and at Syracuse University.

A member of many local and national organizations, she was named this year to appear in the 1966 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America." Nomination is based on community service, charitable activities, professional excellence, service to others, business advancement and civic and professional recognition.

H. M. PARKER

Dean of Men

Part of the MSC faculty since 1947, Herbert Parker has been dean of men from 1959 to date. Formerly head basketball coach and a member of the athletic department, he still finds time to referee basketball games in the area.

A bachelor of arts graduate of Jamestown College, Parker got a master of arts degree from Colorado State College.

One of his duties is that of "screener" for the work-study program. In this position, he reviews all applications for student jobs and decides whether the applicant is deserving of the part-time work.

He is often called upon to represent the college at various meetings around the state and the region.

Parker is married and the father of three children: Pam, Herb and Zoe Ann.

RUSS SMITH

Publicity

Russ Smith, a graduate of Minot State with a major in English, represents MSC as part time publicity co-ordinator. His job is to gather information and news releases concerning MSC students and distribute them to area newspapers and other news media. This process endeavors to promote the image of MSC.

Library Business

As one of the improved services of the Memorial Library, the hours which it is open have been extended. Hundreds of new volumes have also been added, and a machine for copying articles is available to the students.

Eugene Hanson and his staff are constantly seeking ways to make the library a better place to study or to obtain materials on any subject.

The division of business education is constantly attempting to train better those interested in the various phases of business. This extends to the high schools of the city where student teachers gain practical experience in teaching.

At present an extensive follow-up program on business division graduates is being carried out.

The division of education and psychology, headed by Dr. Warren G. Allen, has as its main goal the correlation of theory and methods as applied to the ideal teacher situation.

Robert Smith returned after a year's leave of absence, while Dr. Gary Scott and Dr. Joseph Wax are new to the division.

Professionalization of the field is a primary theme of the education teachers, while psychology instructors stress the application of classroom experiences to human behavior. To complement the aims of the division, the Campus School is used for the training of teachers.

In addition, Dr. Grant M. Norem is in charge of the extensive guidance and testing program conducted by the college.

Areas Vital to Education

Acting as Fine and Applied Arts division chairman is Willard Carpenter. Students enrolled in art and home economics demonstrate their skills by exhibiting projects on the second floor of Old Main and frequently on the campus grounds. Home economics has contests in which members work on projects.

The first division on campus to offer a degree beyond the baccalaureate is special education. Emphasized in its curriculum are speech correction, teaching of the deaf and training of the educable mentally retarded.

Music Division Keeps Event Calendar Full

Music division again fulfilled a busy school term. This year in addition to the regular concerts and other annual events the music division helped present an original opera, "All In Black My Love Came Riding." The musical score for the opera was composed by Dr. Ira P. Schwarz and the libretto was written by Gary Don Luckert, a past English teacher at MSC.

The entire year was scattered with senior and faculty recitals. In April Minot State hosted the District 7 music festival. Also during the spring the various organizations traveled to various towns and cities on their spring tours.

In May the Minot State band journeyed to Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, for the Kinsmen International Band Festival. Band, soloists and small groups competed there for top honors.

The Minot State College physical education division is concerned with the athletic development of each student on campus. It provides major competitive sports for those deeply interested in the physical attributes of college life. It also sponsors intramural activities as well as the required physical education courses for freshmen and sophomores.

With Dr. Dale Pennybaker as chairman, the division witnessed an arrival of several new faces. The new teachers this year are Miss Patricia Kempston, gymnastics; George "Duke" Benz, baseball; and William Schaaake, head football coach.

Each year the division offers new ideas and interests in teaching their field. Giving the students an opportunity to enjoy their activities, much emphasis is placed upon basic skills and human movement.

In the training of future teachers in health and physical education, the staff members find that many graduates go into coaching.

Acquiring three new staff members this year is the Division of Social Science. The only female member of the division is Mrs. Phyllis Klein, a history teacher. Teaching sociology is Wallace Stockman, a native North Dakotan, and new to Minot State's political science classes is Dariush Fazlollahi from Iran.

Chairman of the division is Dr. Paul Morrison. Under his guidance the division sponsored the International Affairs Society and the Annual Peace Garden Conference. Members traveled to Minneapolis and the Peace Gardens, respectively.

The social science division aids students in providing a departmental library and individual conference rooms for their disposal. These services are conveniently located on the first floor of the Administration building.

The division strives to create in the student an awareness of social conditions that affect his everyday life.

Science Abounds in Grants

The division of science once again experienced an increase in faculty. There are 18 members on the staff this year.

In one of the botany classes there were 248 students enrolled, twelve more than the seating capacity of the science hall.

Several research projects have been carried on by various members of the division. Dr. Arnold Johnson worked on an oxygen flask combustion method for the determination of sulfur in inorganic sulfides. Dr. Donald Johnson investigated the diets and energy intake of lizards.

Dr. George Madany received a National Science Foundation grant for research in chemistry. A $5000 NSF grant was awarded for undergraduate research in biology.

Dr. William Dyer and Dr. Paul Leiby conducted experiments with nematodes, a round-worm parasite found on Palawan Island in the Philippines. Melvin Lang applied for an NSF stipend towards a summer institute for secondary teachers.

Also, a $75,000 Federal grant was received which will apply towards a third floor and an astronomy observatory to house DeWayne Martin's telescope.

Campus School Serves Dual Purpose

One of the most important portions of training for teachers is that of actual experience in teaching. All students who graduate from MSC with a B.S. degree spend at least one quarter student teaching.

President and Mrs. Lura spend an afternoon working in their yard.

MSC is fortunate in having a campus school where the instructors have a dual purpose. They set an example for student teachers and aid them in establishing the basic teaching methods as well as their job of teaching the pupils who attend Model or Campus School.

Just as President C. P. Lura aids the supervising teachers, so they in turn assist the student teachers. There are student teachers in every department whether it be elementary or secondary education, music, physical education or home economics.

Student teaching a high school home economics class can be fun.

Dr. Russell L. Odegard, campus physician, and Miss Betsy Nokleby, campus nurse, pause during their busy schedule for the photographer to snap a picture of them.

Many Duties

Those ladies who work in the Student Union cafeteria are concerned with the nutritional welfare of student and faculty alike. From early to late, they are at work serving a varied menu of food.

No less concerned with the welfare of those on campus, the medical team, the barber, and the ladies in the bookstore attempt to provide the best of service. Whether one desires some aspirin, a haircut or the latest magazine, it can be obtained.

Mrs. Olga Johnson and Mrs. Marguerite Chambers are in charge of the college bookstore.

Mrs. Mabel Green, Mrs. Pearl Hanson, Mrs. Eva Foster, Mrs. Tillie Sellin, Miss Edna Snyder, Mrs. Clara Lochtowe and Mrs. Marie Angebauer prepare food for those who eat in the Student Union cafeteria.

Serving as postmistresses to the college are Mrs. Lucy Matteson and Mrs. Lola Castleman.

Members of the Business Office staff are Mrs. Joyce Salsbury, Mrs. Donna Erickson, Mrs. Roseina Toce, Mrs. Irene Lillegard and Mrs. Sylvia Melby.

Seated in the Registrar's Office are Mrs. Dawn Evenson, Elizabeth O'Neill, Mrs. Carol Folden, Mrs. Sharalyn Vedaa and Mrs. Arlene Christenson.

Varied Jobs . . .

Few students realize how vital to the efficiency of MSC are the persons who work in the main office. From the two ladies in the post office to those in the Business Office and the Registrar's Office, each has his own duties.

Each staff is especially busy during registration. However their work does not stop here, for much of the quarter is used just to get everything in its place after the rush of registration is completed. They are kept busy during the year doing the necessary work which their jobs entail.

Personal secretaries are Mrs. Vida Gordon, secretary to Dr. Foster; Mrs. Olga Froemming, secretary to Oscar Quam; Mrs. Nancy Boyd, secretary to J. Busse; Miss Lois Martinson, secretary to Emil Sather; Mrs. Edna Meulen, college stenographer; Mrs. Betty Ellingson, secretary to Dr. Lura; Mrs. Jeanne Vanomy, secretary to Herb Parker; Mrs. Elaine Morris, secretary to D. Norem; and Mrs. Virginia Strandberg, secretary to Joel Davy.

Trained Personnel Insure Better MSC

Division chairmen's secretaries are Miss Suzanne Park, physical education; Miss Janice Smetana, business education; Mrs. Wilma Hanson, social science; Mrs. Irene Hanson, special education; Mrs. Eleanor Fargo, music; Mrs. Gladycie Romine, English.

The members of the building and ground crews are ROW ONE: Jerry Schlag, John Gatarts, Mrs. Matilda Janevics, Mrs. Margaret Nielsen, Aldo Mierow, Emil Onstad, Mike Mosser. ROW TWO: Lloyd Monson, Howard Randall, Cliff Mehl, Ole Salseg, Benny Reigstad, George Gouin, Wendeline Keller, Gene Wiltse, Robert Willert and Floyd Wilson, superintendent.

Personnel of the power house are ROW ONE: Andrew Oen, Roy Matteson, Merrill Williams, chief engineer and Erwin Fetzer. ROW TWO: Glen Rasmussen, Chuck Mattern, Stanley Skudlarek, Francis Goebel and Richard Brown.

Promoting friendship, scholarship, personality, leadership and active participation in college social functions, Beta Theta Sorority had a rewarding year. Two Betas, Kay Karnstedt and Marlene Schmidt, obtained the well sought for honor of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Sondra Paulson captured the office of Student Association treasurer for this past year. Janell Hoffert and Irene Romfo represented the sorority for Homecoming Queen and Miss Beaver, respectively.

Consideration was shown for the elderly people in the Lutheran Home at Thanksgiving time with the presentation of candy, gifts and a short program. It was a very rewarding year that emphasized Beta spirit and friendliness.

To Activities

A hayride, Christmas tormal and Playday all added to the social activity of the sorority.

The Beta's "Little Sister", Eurlinda Urbisca, in the Philippine Islands, received continued support toward her livelihood. She communicated back and forth with her sisters in the sorority. Both parties found this an enlightening activity.

The Betas had an open house before Christmas, which proved to be quite a crowded success. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Effertz, who own the Beta house, acted as houseparents.

Mrs. Bruce Farnum and Mrs. Bruce Morey serve as advisers for the sorority.

Delta Phis Add to Memorial Fund

President Muriel Phelps led the Delta Epsilon Phi Sorority through one of its most rewarding years. Sharon Johnson was chosen Homecoming Princess as well as Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity Sweetheart. In the Miss Beaver Pageant, Sherry Hocking was the sorority's choice of beauty. Who's Who Honors went to Peggy Grimes, a past president of the sorority.

The Delta Phis presented their annual Sadie Hawkins Party in November. They selected Bob Herdt as their hero, Lil' Abner.

Participating in campus social events, the sorority encourages and provides friendships, high moral standards, spiritual enrichments and educational advancements.

Annually the members show their humanitarianism by contributing to the Lois Leonard Memorial fund set up in 1963. This reserve is for loans to elementary educational majors and was named after a deceased member of the sorority.

Advisers to the sorority are Miss Lucille Whitt and Mrs. Beatrice Zimmerman.

Officers are Kay Westlake, vice president; Muriel Phelps, president; Nancy Cammack, secretary, and Janice Smerana, treasurer.

Delta Zetas Capture Best Float Award

The Theta Pi Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority began its year with a rousing Homecoming campaign. Their attempts were rewarded by winning the trophy for the best float in the women's division. The float, entitled "Beavers Hold the Winning Hand," was a football field on which giant playing cards were arranged.

Beauties Diana Jackson and Marsha Young represented the sorority in the Homecoming festivities and the Miss Beaver Pageant, respectively.

Fall pledges are Adele Johnson, Karen Brandt, Kathy Eman, Joyce Zahursky, Marilyn Peterson, Judy Bradley and Patsy Myren.

Quality Shines Through for Sigmas

Sigma beauty, intelligence and personality brought the Tri Sigmas many titles and awards during the year. Sigma personality is represented by Mu Sigma Tau Sweetheart and Homecoming Princess, Carol Skarphol, while beauty was shown in the selection of Ardelle Lierbo and Suzi Wolfe as Miss Beaver finalists.

Roberts Ely and Judy Heffer Fettig were selected for the coveted membership in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Two other cherished gains during the year were Tri Sigma Dream Man, Allan Lundervold and the Panhellenic scholarship trophy.

Through its social service project, the Robbie Page Memorial Fund, money was given toward furnishing an out-patient children's playroom at North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill. Sigmas are also proud of their new national home in Woodstock, Virginia, which houses the national office, the living directory and has rooms for visiting Sigma sisters.

Other sorority activities included exchange parties, teas, the annual dream man dance, the spring term party and a tribute to "Mom" Benest, the housemother of the Minot chapter.

Tri Sigma fall pledges are Gloria Mattison, Kathy Berg, Karen Sorum, Jan Haug, Nancy Johnson and Cheryl DesLauriers.

Smoker Carries Out Unique Idea

With plans to increase the size of their alumni association, Mu Sigma Tau Fraternity completed another busy year. The association was started to continue the fraternal bonds that former members could recall from their college days.

Providing a service to the college through brotherhood and fraternal organization, the Mu Sigs printed and distributed the Faculty-Student Directory. They also invited the entire student body to their annual Sweetheart Dance in February. Carol Skarphol was sweetheart for the past year. She succeeded her Tri Sigma sister, Eileen Ehreth.

The winter smoker proved to be quite a success as well as a unique idea for future smokers. Several sorority girls were invited to add interest to the quarterly event. The girls socialized with the prospective pledges and provided a feeling of informality to the important event.

During the year 22 men lived in the fraternity house. They were able to watch color television or relax in their newly redecorated living room.

The Mu Sigs showed leadership in various college organizations. Mick Moberg headed the Student Association while Monte Nelson and Mike Nilson were Homecoming Co-Chairmen. Darv Hirsch led International Affairs Society and Bill Flegel edited the Red and Green newspaper. Allan Lundervold was chosen Sigma Dream Man.

With a Founders Day banquet, parent-son dinner, spring formal and exchange parties the Mu Sigma Tau Fraternity had a very rewarding year.

New Fraternity Starts on Campus

A new organization to make its appearance on campus this year was Beta Psi chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. The chapter was extended to Minot State College through the efforts of two local members, John Theisen and Lou Trombetta.

Original chapter was founded at Central Missouri State College in 1920. The Saga, a quarterly magazine, provides life subscription for initiated members.

The fraternity had a year full of many accomplishments. They sponsored Denise Huddleson in the Miss Beaver Pageant and Candy Bergan in the Snow Queen contest. One of their members, John Thompson, was crowned Snow King at the annual Snow Carnival. Another member, Steve Sidener, was crowned a Snow Duke.

The fraternity also sponsored a Sweetheart dance in March and a Founder's Day banquet. Plans for the future are to increase membership, provide several social functions and acquire a fraternity house.

TKE Cops 5th Straight HC Trophy

Epsilon Omega chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon, the world's largest international fraternity, was led to a successful year by President Keith Elliott.

The TKE's hard work and enthusiasm during the Homecoming festivities proved rewarding when they captured first place in the Men's float division for the fifth consecutive year.

Many women were prominent in their year as they selected Candy Bergan as their Miss Beaver Candidate and Judy Cushing as their Snow Queen candidate. Outgoing Sweetheart Dawn Stedman was replaced by Sharon Johnson at the annual TKE Sweetheart Ball. Men who are now officially connected with the Minot chapter are Larry Eide, faculty adviser, and Curt Medalen, chapter adviser.

During the Christmas season the TKE house was the location for a party where the men entertained the underprivileged children of Minot. Although they did many things for other people, their social life was not hampered. They had their annual winter party, smokers, Founders Day Banquet and Red Carnation Ball.

Independents Win Overall Trophy

The independent students on campus began the year with a successful, rousing campaign for Homecoming. Both their candidate, Ivadell Stokes, and their float brought them victory giving them the overall trophy.

The independents also sought to create more activity on campus during the year by planning and executing a hayride, carnival, Inter-Faith week and a college bowling tournament.

Their Miss Beaver candidate, Dedra Scoggins, was selected as a finalist, and their candidate, Carol Tveito, was crowned Snow Queen to make their year one of victory and fun.

Independent officers are Jim Stai, president; Ivy Stokes, secretary, and Louella Anderson, treasurer.

Head of outstanding committees are Sandy Reilly, Carol Tveito, Dayne Ihla and Gordon Brandvold.

Jim Stai checks to see if all his passengers are seated, hollers "all aboard," and prepares to lead the independents to another night of merriment.

On behalf of all Minot State independents, Jim Stai, independent president, accepts the Overall Homecoming Trophy from Homecoming co-chairmen Monte Nelso and Mike Nilson.

These independents seem enthusiastic as they prepare to leave for a romantic night on a hay ride.

Mackey Heads Xi Province

Delta Kappa Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota National music fraternity for women celebrated its second birthday on the Minot State College campus this year. Besides celebrating a birthday, Delta Kappa was especially proud of their past adviser, Jocelyn Mackey, who was elected Xi Province president at the tri-annual convention which took place in Minneapolis this past summer.

Another new addition was secured this year by naming Miss Mary Elizabeth Bradley as faculty adviser. Other additions this year were the seven patronesses initiated in November.

Sigma Alpha Iota is a service organization and therefore acts as hostess at various musical functions on campus. Also they present a number of recitals during the year. A major presentation sponsored in conjunction with the Lambda Chi Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is the American Musicale. This was presented in March.

Sinfonians Give Special Recital

Lambda Chi Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is organized to advance the cause of music in America. It also tries to foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students of music.

The organization not only contributes to the musical side of campus life but also intends to develop the truest fraternal spirit among its members as well as encouraging loyalty to the Alma Mater.

Special occasions for Sinfonians this year include an American Music Recital given in conjunction with Sigma Alpha Iota, which is dedicated to furthering real American music and American style in music.

Members also performed at a Chapter Day Recital. Members are highly encouraged to perform on their own at Wednesday morning recitals rather than just the minimum that the music division requires.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is most ably advised by Bradford Parkinson.

Also this year Phi Mu Alpha along with Sigma Alpha Iota will sing a jazz mass at a Minot Symphony Orchestra concert.

Members of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia act as ushers at special functions sponsored by the Division of Music as well as carrying out their many and varied responsibilities which arise from their musical field.

Sinfonia officers are Joe Alme, vice president; John Schwarz, historian; Quentin Love, warden; Neil Johnson, executive alumni secretary; Dave Bjornson, president; Brad Parkinson, adviser; Harold Eastburn, recording secretary and Ralph Schneider, treasurer.

Band Exhibits Ability, Versatility

One of MSC's greatest assets is its band. Under the able directorship of Dr. Ira Schwarz, Charles Moore and Brad Parkinson, the band presented entertainment for everyone's taste.

Every student has heard the band at some time whether it be the Pep Band at a game, the Marching Band in the Homecoming Parade, or the Concert Band at one of its frequent concerts.

The band also traveled to Moosejaw, Saskatchewan where they competed with Canadians besides others from the United States both in a group and as soloists. The spirit provided by our band has been invaluable to everyone at Minot State.

Brad Parkinson barks orders

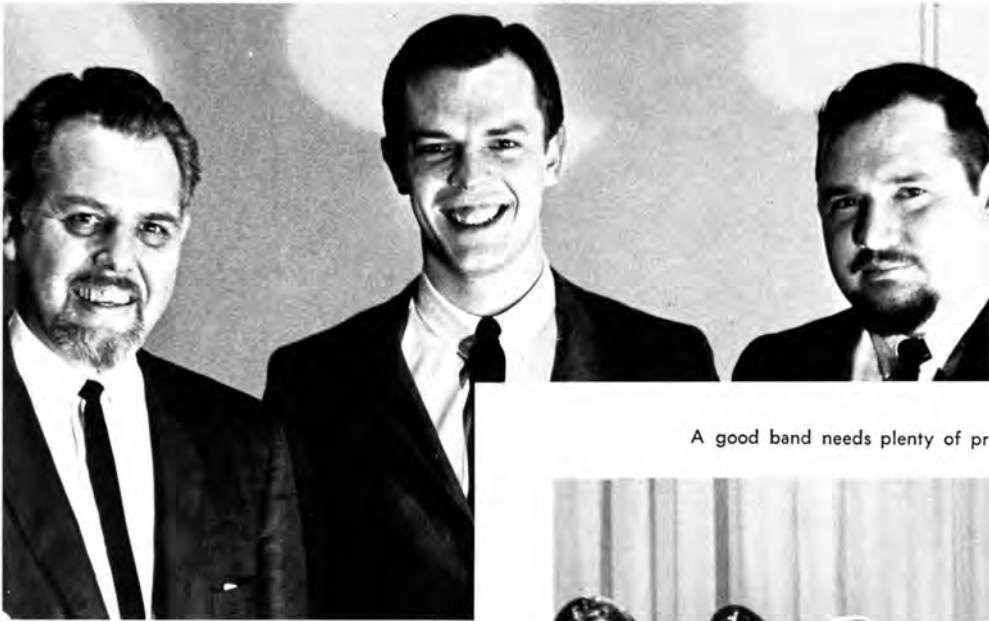

The band displays its marching talent by forming an "M" at the Homecoming game during halftime festivities.

Weary, but undaunted, our band rounds the last corner in the Homecoming parade.

Band officers are Joe Alme, vice president; Joan Luchsinger, secretary-treasurer; and Wendell Iverson, president.

Leadership of the band is shared by Dr. Ira Schwarz who directs the Concert Band and Brad Parkinson who leads the Marching Band as well as the Pep Band. Charles Moore is an assistant director when he is free from his duties as an instructor.

A good band needs plenty of practice as this group can tell you.

Choir Represents College Well

One of Minot's most talented groups, the College Concert Choir, had another busy year as well as a very profitable one. The year began with a performance for the NDEA Convention in the fall as well as a concert for the Elks Club.

The Choir raised their voices in song with a Christmas Concert at the Minot Air Force Base. The Yuletide season also found the Concert Choir blending their voices with those of other area choirs and individuals at the annual presentation of "The Messiah."

As the "roving ambassador" for the college the choir also provided excellent entertainment for the entire area on one of their annual concert tours this year.

Under the direction of John Strohm, the choir has continued its tradition of great musical presentations.

Concert Choir is directed by John Strohm.

Concert Choir officers are Terry Bradley, treasurer; Karen Vetter, secretary; John Schwarz, vice president; and David Troxel, president.

Women's Chorus officers are Jane Eggen, vice president; Linda Hovey, president; Susan Dybing, secretary-treasurer; and Arnola Lohse, accompanist.

The only male member of Women's Chorus is its able director, John J. Spoelstra.

Chorus Performs for Varied Groups

Women's Chorus provided many opportunities for MSC girls to display their vocal talents under the leadership of director John Spoelstra.

In the fall quarter the chorus took part in a program presented for the NDEA Teacher's Convention. The group also sang for members of the Schumann Club.

Women's Chorus enriched the Christmas season for the Minot area by participating in the annual presentation of Handel's

"Messiah" as well as the President's Christmas Convocation on MSC campus. The officer's wives at the Minot Air Force Base invited the chorus to sing for a Christmas luncheon at their club.

The spring brought the annual tour of area towns for the chorus. The season was culminated with a home concert at which a variety of songs ranging from a folk song to the modern music without lyrics were sung.

Versatility Typifies 'New' Male Chorus

The latest addition to the music department is that of the Male Chorus. At prior times MSC has had an organization similar to this one. John Strohm, chairman of the music division and director of the chorus was responsible for its organization.

The men who are music majors, minors or those who are merely interested in music constitute the Male Chorus's membership. They participate in numerous activities during the year.

Men's Chorus is under the direction of Mr. John Strohm.

The group performed for the NDEA convention in October. Also individual members assisted Women's Chorus with several Christmas songs during the holiday season and for a performance for Schumann club.

The Male Chorus sings a variety of works ranging from the traditional songs to the age old classics.

Officers include Lyle Johnsen, treasurer; Neil Johnson, secretary; and Quentin Love, vice president. Not pictured is Maynard Tingelstad who is the president of Men's Chorus.

The orchestra is composed of MSC students and faculty, area high school students and interested and capable members of the community.

Minot Association Backs Orchestra

Minot Symphony Orchestra Association celebrated its first year of existence May 16, 1965. The original idea of a symphony orchestra association was first discussed at a banquet moderated by James L. Slocum, superintendent of the Minot school system.

At that time a "steering committee" was selected to form officially the organization and run it until the official election of a board of directors was held. Coleman Taube headed this committee. The election was at the February 27 Classical Romantic Concert.

One of the main purposes of the association is to supply the orchestra with funds to offset expenses. A membership drive was enacted during the summer of 1965 to raise the initial funds for this purpose. As a result 193 members joined.

The association has a five concert season plus playing for "The Messiah." This year's concert series consisted of a pops, baroque, classical romantic, contemporary and student honors concert.

LSAers Find Participation Rewarding

Meeting every Wednesday evening in the basement of Augustana Lutheran church, Lutheran Student Association encourages participation in a rewarding aspect of college life. Members have the opportunity of acquainting themselves with their religious backgrounds and to prepare themselves intellectually, emotionally and spiritually to meet the demands of today's world.

LSA occasionally meets a Friday evening also. Members involve themselves with discussing literature, singing folksongs and reading poetry. Lunch is served during the social period following the meeting.

As a Halloween project, LSAers went trick-or-treating for UNICEF. During Christmas season, members went caroling. Other activities included an Easter Pageant and a picnic.

MSM Provides Worthy Activities

As a group the members of Methodist Student Movement enrich their lives through Wednesday night programs and special get-togethers; while as individuals they participate in various activities of the church such as teaching Sunday school, singing in the choir and serving at banquets.

The group sponsors such varied activities as a fall banquet, deputations to other Methodist churches and an annual visit to the nursing home. During the Christmas season the members went caroling.

In the spring the group went on an all-day retreat, which was quite a welcome outing. The State Convention at Wesley Acres in April was attended by many members from MSM.

Guest speakers appeared on several occasions to address the group. At one meeting, Chuck Jostad, a former MSMer, showed slides of his trip to Europe the previous summer and spoke of the quartet of which he was a member during his tour.

Newman Furthers Three-Fold Goals

Newman Club exercised a three-fold objective this year. They furthered their Christian teachings into their religious, educational and social backgrounds. Not only did Newman Club members learn the importance of their church's beliefs but the extreme importance of bringing the teachings of Christ to those who have never known Him.

Newman Club took part in several activities during the year. Some of them included the Thanksgiving turkey raffle participation in the Bishop Ryan carnival, Christmas caroling and a spring pancake carnival.

Father Charles Magyar served as adviser to the group and Joe Alme was president.

In addition to regular business meetings and special speakers, Newman Club held several social hours afterwards.

Gamma Delta Studies Bible Thoroughly

Gamma Delta members have numerous objectives as their purpose of existence. As an organization they strive to foster a thorough study of the Bible and to disseminate the scriptural philosophy of life.

Members aid in the training of Lutheran students for Christian service to God and man. Maintaining religious consciousness on campus and increasing intercampus fellowship among students of their faith are expressed in everyday life by the members.

The activities of Gamma Delta give each member an opportunity to participate in something that interests him. On the agenda for this past year were a Hawaiian lawn party, a hayride, picnics, winter skating parties and visits to other area churches. The members also viewed films and hosted several speakers.

UCCF Stresses Tangible Goals

United Christian Campus Fellowship had a busy year. Plans included a Regional Retreat at Fargo in the winter and a spring and local retreat. They also had a Mormon speak on his particular beliefs.

UCCF goals for this year included the cultivation of Christian spirit and fellowship. They also sought answers to problems which seem to plague our times. They want to develop a true Christian service.

They showed true Christian and Christmas spirit while participating in a progressive Christmas caroling supper. Each portion of the supper was in a different location. President Fred Morrison with Vice President Kathy Moran, Treasurer Diane Axelson and Secretary Carol Godfrey put in much effort to make UCCF effective this year.

Another indispensable member of UCCF is their adviser, Dr. Paul Morrison. Pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Rev. Norman Neumann, and Rev. George Godfrey assist the group primarily with the spiritual aspects of the organization, yet they still participate in and enjoy the recreational programs planned by the individual members of UCCF.

Putz Leads I-V Through Busy Year

Under the leadership of President Phyl Putz, Minot's Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship had another busy and successful year. This year's agenda contained gospel teams to visit area churches, weekly meetings in the Student Union Lounge, socials and bi-weekly prayer meetings on campus. Members also prepared a float to help make the Homecoming parade the success it was.

Inter-Varsity has several important goals it tries to achieve. Included among them are the development of interdenominational fellowship on the college campus and the strengthening of Christians in their faith so that they may lead truly Christian lives.

Inter-Varsity meetings usually bring out many questions from their participants, as the expressions on these girls show.

RWF Participates in Area Services

With a purpose to promote Christian fellowship, understanding, and service for Baptist students at college, Roger Williams Fellowship meets every week. Meetings usually include a Bible study, speaker, or a film. Socials are held whenever possible. One function of Roger Williams Fellowship is to travel to area Baptist churches as gospel teams leading and participating in regular church services.

Roger Williams Fellowship is the Minot Chapter of the Baptist Student Movement of the American Baptist Church.

Under the Leadership of President John Holmen, campus Baptists are advised by John Holmen of the faculty. Pastoral adviser is Reverend A. J. DeNeui.

Hestia Celebrates First Anniversary

Hestia Home Economics Club is now celebrating its first anniversary. Home Ec Club which was organized last year picked the name "Hestia" because it refers to the Greek goddess of the hearth and home.

Some of the highlights of this year included a Christmas Tupperware party and a Valentine party. At another meeting members learned needlecraft and points on personal grooming.

Each year the members look forward to attending the State Home Economics Convention. This year the convention was in Fargo on the campus of NDSU.

Meetings Promote Educational Goals

Zeta Xi chapter of Kappa Delta Pi held its monthly meetings in the Student Union. There the members attempted to promote a closer bond among students in education and to build a dedication to the cause of teaching as a profession.

Kappa Delta Pi invites only students who maintain above a B average to become members. They have a fall tea, a spring banquet and also sponsor the annual Honors Day Convocation where awards are given to deserving individuals in every phase of curriculum.

This year Marilyn Enders was selected as Kappa Delta Pi's delegate to a national convention held in Houston, Texas, in February. To finance the trip the organization sponsored several money making projects.

At their meeting several speakers, including James Francis a Minot State graduate, spoke to them.

Phi Sigma Pi Promotes High Ideals

With possibly some of the highest aims and purposes of any organization at Minot State College, Phi Sigma Pi is an honorary fraternity to promote education and to create a growing knowledge of professional responsibility.

To reach their goals, Phi Sigma Pi meets once a month. Meetings are generally held with a guest speaker who holds a vital position in the community. Included in their list of speakers was Dean Randolph Foster. In October he spoke on the interrelationship of responsibilities between the college and the student.

Agenda Includes Felting Lectures

Every two weeks will find members of Beta Gamma Phi or the Science Club in the science auditorium for one of their interesting and informative meetings.

The spotlight at a Beta Gamma Phi meeting may fall on a student, a faculty member, or anyone else interested in pursuing the knowledge of science.

This year's agenda included a lecture and discussion on the "Origin of Life" by Mrs. Carol Belinsky, "Religions Look at Life" by Rev. Richard Jurgensen and "Life History of the Fox Parasite" by its discoverer Dr. Paul Leiby. Other plans were a four or five day field trip to special points of interest.

The Science Club purposes to inform and create interest in students and instructors in the field of science and to give students experience in communication and organization.

Carolyn Juhala, a Science Club member, won recognition for her scientific ability when she received a National Science Foundation Undergraduate Research Grant.

Roland Toth explains a chemical equation to Phyllis Evanko.

English Group Sets High Goals

The John D. Scheffer Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta fraternity for English majors witnessed an impressive increase in membership. It was organized in 1964 to promote the mastery of written expression and to encourage worth while reading. It also fosters a spirit of fellowship among students specializing in English.

The members read and discussed several books during the year, such as Bel Kaufman's Up The Down Staircase and Katherine Anne Porter's Ship Of Fools. They are also encouraged to contribute original works to the Rectangle, a national fraternity publication, and The Coup, the Minot State College literary magazine.

As stated in its motto, "Sincerity, Truth and Design," Sigma Tau Delta seeks to stimulate a desire in members to express life in terms of truth and beauty and to make first-hand acquaintances with the chief literary masterpieces of our language.

Members used their creative ability in a successful attempt to master the 17-syllable Japanese poetry of impression.

Joint Meeting Highlights Activities

With varied and interesting programs scheduled for each of the monthly meetings, French Club began its third year with an annual Halloween party. Members came attired in a variation of styles, ranging from the traditional to the original selections.

Christmas holiday season was celebrated with the singing of French carols. Miss Helen Hoar and Mrs. Marie Noelle Long, faculty advisers, assisted members with the proper pronunciation.

At one of the meetings, several area high school girls who had toured France the previous summer showed slides. They related what they had learned in French class to practical experience.

The highlight of the year came in the spring when college members had a get together with the high school members and practiced their well-learned skills in speaking French on each other. It was a profitable end to an enjoyable year.

Officers of French Club are Adele Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Mary Jean Ostlund, president; Linda Talcott, historian, and Laurel Rovig, vice president.

Club Furthers Studies of Language

One of the newer groups on campus is the Deutscher Verein, or German Club. Under the leadership of president, Ann Kronbauer, members had a very busy year participating in the various activities offered to them.

Meeting three times a quarter, members took part in such activities as songfests, games and potluck suppers. This year the club sponsored a picnic with all the German trimmings.

The group had the opportunity to listen to various guest speakers and other persons of interest. Many of the speakers had either lived in or had toured Germany.

The major objective of German Club members is to learn all they can about the German language, people and culture. At several of the meetings they read excerpts from German literature with the aid of adviser, Mrs. Aboltins.

Verena Ehrenfried spoke at one of the meetings of German Club. She is a foreign exchange student from Austria attending Minot High School.

Chautauqua Provides Speech Participation

Pi Kappa Delta, Minot State College speech organization, undertakes competitive and community speech activities as a major part of its contribution to the campus. Members attend various tournaments throughout the country.

As Beta chapter they sponsor the Cambridge University debate, the annual Chautauqua picnic and several other college-community programs.

This honorary speech fraternity strives for advancement in superior public speaking and critical thinking. Competitive intercollegiate tournaments in the areas of debate, oratory or extemporaneous speaking is the basic requirement for membership.

Tournaments provide the students with an opportunity to display and improve ability in areas of communication, quick thinking, logical analysis and audience insight.

The annual Chautauqua picnic provides the forensics team with an opportunity to promote and encourage college-community programs.

Business Fraternity Hosts Convention

The Delta Omega Chapter of Pi Omega Pi, business fraternity, played host to the district convention this spring. They also have had guest speakers at their meetings on such topics as insurance, investments and other areas of business. In addition, they listened to speakers concerned with graduate work on the master's and doctor's level.

Pi Omega Pi creates interest and enthusiasm in business scholarship, professional and general education. It strives to aid in civic betterment, encourages high ethical standards in business and professional life. In turn Pi Omega Pi creates a fellowship among business teachers of tomorrow.

Candidates for membership into Pi Omega Pi must have completed at least five quarters of college with a minimum of 15 quarter hours at Minot State. They must have an overall average of 1.50 or better with a 2.00 in their business and educational courses. In addition they must have completed 18 hours of business courses and four hours of education courses.

IAS Participates in 'Mock' U.N.

Formed to create an awareness of the leadership role the United States has to play in world organization, International Affairs Society completed its fourth session after a very busy and rewarding year.

During winter quarter the students studied and researched the basic structure of the United Nations. This was to ready them for a "mock" United Nations at Minneapolis in the latter part of April. Minot State represented four countries including the United States.

Led by president Darv Hirsch and advisers Carl Kalvelage and Dariush Fazlollahi, the group also portrayed Iran. This was quite a break for the members, as Fazlollahi is a native Iranian and therefore well versed on customs, formalities and position in world affairs.

Through their investigations into the U. N. charter they were able to present and support legislation in a like manner of their "parent" organization. In fact they did so well the previous year that they were chosen the second most effective delegation from a representation of 58 colleges and universities. It was an honor of which both the students and the school were proud.

Only Actors Can Belong to APO

Providing a group of students with extended theatre experience among Campus Players, Alpha Psi Omega meets the need that many drama students request. They develop goals of excellence in the Minot State theatre as well as delving into specific areas and problems of productions.

With emphasis on performance skills, Alpha Psi Omega became the top drama organization on campus. Membership requires achievement in acting because it is an honorary dramatic fraternity of which Alpha Psi Omega is the Delta Theta chapter. Involvement gains APO membership but results in more involvement for those accepted.

Opera Debut Marks a First

With the motto—"Support the theatre," Campus Players had an enriching year filled with varied presentations. Members produced two plays each quarter. The highlight of the year was the opera "All In Black My Love Came Riding." This was strictly an on campus presentation. It was written by a former staff member, Gary Don Luckert, with the musical score composed by Dr. Ira P. Schwarz, MSC musical instructor. Richard D. Hesler, drama teacher and Campus Players adviser, produced the opera. Another production that drew successful raves was William Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar."

Promoting . . .

Campus Players strive to develop an interest in the theatre on campus. They promote several fine art films and have all school tryouts for their plays.

Members come from all areas of college life but they have common goals of excellence and excitement in productions. The informality of backstage and the pressures under the lights play an important part in the dramatic art of theatre productions.

Women are not left out of the athletic side of life at MSC. Women's Recreation Association provides ample opportunity for girls to develop dexterity through programmed recreational activities.

In the fall WRA members participated in the state playday at Mayville and put out a Homecoming booklet. The group also sponsored the annual Sweatshirt Dance where Mr. Letterman and Miss WRA were chosen. The members ushered at basketball tournaments too.

WRA was kept busy when they hosted a high school playday and held their annual spring banquet honoring graduating seniors.

Club Encourages Overall Participation

One of the newest organizations on campus, Physical Education Club is composed of all physical education majors and minors. The club meets once a month. Each meeting is designed to present demonstrations and speeches by authorities pertaining to health and physical education.

Physical Education Club members also find entertainment in co-recreation after meetings. Other plans included the sending of delegates to the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation Convention. This event was held in March in the "Windy City" of Chicago.

Physical Education Club members intend to stimulate the growth of professional attitudes and interest among students in health, physical education and recreation. They also want to prepare students for active participation in professional associations.

'M' Club Promotes Prestige in Sports

President Fred Kraft led the "M" Club through another busy year. The lettermen's activities included the sponsoring of several dances which are always popular on campus.

One of "M" Club's main functions is to present awards to worthy athletes and others associated with athletics. The big event every year for "M" Club is, of course, Kampus Kapers which provides good-natured fun for the whole college.

"M" Club motivates to install prestige by upholding the virtues and principles designated by athletes. They also seek to advance college spirit by bettering relationships between "M" Club and all other organizations on campus.

Beaver Staff

The 10 members of the Beaver staff experienced the usual difficulties encountered in producing a yearbook. The first major problem was the distribution of the additional 32 pages that were necessary to accommodate MSC's growth in faculty, students and organizations.

The inevitable problems of identifying people, locating an extra typewriter during a deadline, getting enough material for copy and waiting for a late photographer slowed the efficient staff down only momentarily.

Sets Record With First Deadline

The staff's first deadline set a new record by reaching the publisher 11 days ahead of schedule.

In addition to the difficulties, the Beaver staff had their good times too. They managed to have their own Christmas tree, produce a Miss Beaver pageant and design new hair styles for "Walter." "Walter" is the office pet who the editor brought back from her trip to the publishing company in Dallas, Texas.

With the encouragement of the adviser, Mrs. Muriel Turner, and the editor, Peggy Loveland, the 256 pages of the Beaver were designated, designed and delivered to the publisher with the hope that the 1966 Beaver would make the first All-American rating. For the past nine consecutive years the Beaver has received a First Class rating.

Newspaper Topics Cover Wide Range

Reporters for the Red and Green, the college newspaper, were once again seen bustling around campus collecting the vital information about activities and interests on MSC.

The publication staff put out a biweekly paper with the exception of a few delays such as final test time. A special edition featuring green paper was printed prior to Christmas.

Not only were the usual announcements from the administration and current news printed but also many features. The Viet Nam situation and the notorious Playboy magazine served as controversial topics for feature editor, Bill Hurly, while columnist Joe Linnertz elaborated on such advances as the 5, 6 or 7 year plan of curriculum.

The paper, edited by Bill Flegel, gave the students, faculty and others on the mailing lists many humorous, interesting and enlightening articles to read. However as usual, the majority of the papers eventually wound up in file #13, and the readers began anticipating the arrival of the next edition.

Young GOPs Prepare for State Meet

Minot State Young Republicans spent most of this year in preparation for the State Young Republicans coming to the State Convention which was held in Minot.

Another Republican project was held in conjunction with the Young Democrats when they held a joint discussion on the North Dakota Tax Package.

The two clubs also held a "Lecture-In" the purpose of which was to support the United States policy in Viet Nam and to counteract the so-called "Teach-Ins" against it.

Some mirth was added to Young Republican's lives as well as to others at Minot State College when they held their annual "Ugly Man" contest.

George M. Johnson was one of Young Republican's speakers this year. Mr. Johnson, president of Minot's First National Bank, gave a very interesting talk on the federal budget.

Goals of Young Republicans included educating and impressing college students with the importance of political activity. They also upheld their traditional goal of supporting the senior party.

Dems Sponsor Beauty Candidate

Minot State Young Democrats, led by their president Sherry Allen, had an active year. One of the biggest events of the season was a visit from Congressmen Rolland Redlin and John Schmidhauser at one weekly meeting in November. Redlin's experience tested suggestions and encouragement was a real "shot in the arm." Sherry Allen and Gary Holm attended an executive committee meeting in Bismarck in December. The Young Democrats also had an excellent representation at the Young Democrat State Convention in Grand Forks in February. At this event Minot Young Democrats sponsored Lois Anderson for the title of Miss Young Democrat.

Other activities included a series of six state legislators speaking every Monday night starting in January.

Although some Young Democrats were a little camera shy this year, they certainly fulfilled their stated objective of being a real asset to their senior party.

Young Democrats are G. Holm, R. Hazlitt, C. Joyce, J. Krueger, C. Wilson, M. Boyd, P. Schwandt, L. Anderson and S. Allen.

Toestmistresses Develop Speech, Poise

With a membership limit of 20 persons, Toestmistresses furnish opportunities to develop speech and thought. The group fosters an awareness of grace and poise as well as aiding the individual to accept responsibilities of social life.

The Toestmistresses achieve their goals through self-criticism. Each meeting includes a master evaluator who evaluates parliamentary procedure and other points of study. The adviser makes further constructive comments on the agenda.

To further their vocabulary, the members look up three words at each meeting which they are asked to learn to use correctly.

Also, to make practical application of the study of parliamentary procedure, officers are elected every quarter. This enables each girl to receive experience as a leader.

The year included two joint meetings held with the Gavel Club. Members also bring guests who are considered prospective Toestmistresses.

Nell Boozenny begins her impromptu speech with candor.

Club Strives for Speech Mastery

The rattle of dishes, a cry of "point of order," and a lively discussion of the war in Viet Nam all help to comprise one of the Gavel Club's six dinner meetings a quarter.

At each Gavel Club meeting the members, their advisers and their guests aim to promote and perfect speaking ability through a concentration on organization, context and delivery of speeches.

With a strict use of Robert's Rules of Order, the club learns how to conduct a meeting properly. They also give many of the members the opportunity to serve as an officer by re-electing a new president and secretary each quarter. The vice president and treasurer retain their office all year.

Poise and confidence in the company of the fairer sex is developed at a quarterly joint meeting with the Toast-Mistresses. Both the members of the Gavel Club and the Toast-Mistresses take part in the impromptu and prepared speeches, the bug-house session and the round table discussions.

Each meeting is concluded with criticism of the evening meeting's proceedings by several members and the faculty advisers.

Officers of Gavel Club are Bob Herdt, vice president; Dave Thompson, winter quarter president; Rauleigh Robinson, winter quarter secretary; Dr. Paul Morrison, adviser, Gary Aljets, treasurer, and Gaylen Brown, adviser.

Fred LaCount presents an impromptu speech while other members of Gavel Club listen for possible areas of improvement.

MENC Hosts Student Music Hour

Music Educators National Conference is directed toward the interests of future and present music educators. Their meetings were centered around 20th century compositions, music contest procedures, job placement of music teachers and Pan American music.

MENC members also studied the score of the original opera, All In Black My Love Came Riding. It was written by Dr. Ira Schwarz and produced at MSC during the fall quarter.

Repeated again this year was the MENC candy sale to raise money for scholarships for deserving music students. They were also active during the NDEA convention.

The Minot chapter was host for a state-wide student's music hour and assisted in the election of state officers for student chapters.

A new addition to the accomplishments of the Minot Chapter is that of publishing a state-wide newsletter. Assisting the members of MENC with the newsletter and all their other projects are the group's advisers, Charles Moore and Brad Parkinson.

Emily Henning observes Peggy Grimes taking minutes at a meeting while Marlene Dunderland listens like a true scholar.

Leaders of MENC this year are Pat Alexander, president; Karen Vetter, vice president; Roberta Albert, secretary; and Donna Harchanko, treasurer.

Speakers Keynote Vital Issues

Joel Davy, assistant to the president of MSC, speaks to members of SNEA at one of their monthly meetings.

Student National Education Association officers are Mary Jean Ostlund, historian; Kenneth Gardner, treasurer, Adele Johnson, vice president, and Sondra Paulson, secretary.

Almost everyone at Minot State College who is concerned with any field of education has come in contact with the Student National Education Association.

The Minot chapter was kept busy this year with the state SNEA Convention in October. Each monthly meeting provided a speaker on some particular aspect of education. This year Dr. Joseph Wax spoke on the ungraded system of education. Other speakers included Joel Davy and James Slocum, the superintendent of the Minot School System.

Minot's SNEA chapter includes two state officers, Linda Tofteland and Ora Wright. They are also responsible for the publication of the state SNEA Newsletter.

President Larry Atwood led the organization in an attempt to fulfill their goals of personal and professional growth, development of leadership skills and understanding the history and ethics of education. They also try to participate in professional activities at local, state and national levels.

Members of Student National Education Association meet in the student union and patiently wait for the meeting to begin.

Coeds Compete for Honors

The 16th annual Miss Beaver Pageant was the usual center of excitement and anticipation as each of the 12 contestants prepared to represent in the best way possible the organization that sponsored her.

Beaver editor Peggy Loveland as mistress of ceremonies introduced the candidates in each division of competition. With a graceful walk and a constant smile, each of the 1966 Miss Beaver candidates took her place on the stage of McFarland auditorium. The anxious doubts she had had concerning her chances didn't affect her radiant smile.

The fact that the hem of her formal was staying up due to sheer force of will power of the fear of tripping on the stairs didn't affect her poise as she walked. Only the certainty that five judges were watching her every move influenced her actions.

The street dress, swim suit and formal wear competition were the usual array of color and poise, while the talent portion revealed a hint of the girls' personalities and their abilities. The audience was amazed at the variety of talent which included such things as a tympani solo and a cheerleading routine.

To Candy Bergan, Leanne Hillestad, Ardelle Liebo, Dedra Scoggins and Suzi Wolfe, the five girls chosen as semifinalists, the long, long hours of practice, drilling routines, modeling movements and cues seemed well worth the time and effort expended.

Dedra Scoggins practices her piano solo while Suzi Wolfe listens for sour notes.

It Takes

The social committee provides many fun filled times for the MSC students throughout the year. There are the regular weekend dances, and games to attend with a hay ride or square dance added to spice-up their social life.

1965 Homecoming festivities headed by Monte Nelson and Mike Nilson, co-chairmen, followed the theme, "Autumn Victory." Events started October 14 with the traditional Buffalo Bar-b-que and snake dance. Evening entertainment was provided by the ever-popular Serendipity Singers at the Minot Municipal Auditorium.

Anticipation mounted as coronation activities began at McFarland Auditorium with the Homecoming Committee receiving awards. When the curtains were finally drawn, everyone stared in amazement, as the "Autumn Victory" theme was so expertly and skillfully shown.

Suspense heightened as Mistress of Ceremonies Gloria Mattison announced the queen candidates as they were escorted down the aisle. Several past reigning Homecoming Queens were present and expressed best wishes to the uncrowned queen.

Serendipity Singers received a tremendous response from their receptive audience.

Hosting the Ellendale "Dusties", the Beavers took an easy 38-0 victory to make the Homecoming game a success. A large crowd of students, parents and alumni attended. Halftime entertainment at the game featured Minot State College Marching Band and twelve high school bands from the Minot area. Most of the high school band directors were alumni of MSC.

A "Battle of the Bands" Friday evening featured Pete Goetz and the Delmonics. This informal dance helped to build anticipation for the Victory Ball featuring Les Elgart.

Dorms Elect

Mrs. Stolt, head resident of McCulloch checks her list of girls.

Friendliness is a quality that reigns in McCulloch and Dakota Hall. The girls have a home away-from-home, a second mother and friends that will remain theirs long after they leave college behind. A certain degree of "quietness" must prevail for those who are intellectually inclined, and the kitchen provides the proper atmosphere for the traditional popcorn break.

Mrs. Lucy Stolt, head resident of McCulloch finds her second year at the dorm has brought some interesting girls to her attention. Mrs. Nina Argersinger, head resident of Dakota Hall, is in charge of the influx of freshman girls who fill Dakota every year.

This year a Residence council was established in the two girls' dorms. The members are elected from each floor in the dorms and plan open house and promote door decorating contests.

Draft Beckons if Grades Slide

Independent men live in Pioneer and Crane Halls. These "self-made" men come and go as they please, wash and iron clothes like professionals and are well versed in many subjects ranging from geometry to girls. Television takes up much of their leisure time. It plays second only to an occasional card game.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel G. Powell and family reside in Crane Hall, and Dr. and Mrs. Ira Schwarz reside in Pioneer Hall. Generally they find the men studying hard to remain II-S according to the draft board. There have been no draft card burnings in either of the two dorms.

CONVOCATIONS COMMITTEE

The Convocations Committee guided by John Strohm strives to bring to the students of MSC well known personages to campus. Through this effort, cultural, political and social benefits are expected. This year the committee has produced Ruth Sheldon Knowles, war correspondent, and Mulford Q. Sibley, controversial lecturer.

Other members of the committee are Judy Cushing, Allan Lundervold, Robert Lee, Steven Sidener and Ronald Lund.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

MSC's Social Committee headed by Fred Morrison fulfilled another busy year with dances, co-recreation and a winter snow carnival. In February, the snow carnival was the highlight for the year with a four-day celebration. Two of these days were spent at Twilight Hills Ski Resort for the second consecutive year.

Other members of the social committee were Craig Vossseteig, Victoria Stong, Myrna Heller, Diane Axelson, Jan Klovstad and Ron Conrad.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Representing the 2,012 students of Minot State College in student government is the Student Senate. President Mick Moberg presides over the senate which has two members from each class and regularly elected officers. Harold Aleshire serves as adviser this year.

Many student policies concerning the school have to be approved by the senate. This year by approval and request of the senate, school was dismissed one afternoon during Homecoming. It was decided that if interest and school spirit continued, this policy would be extended next year.

The meetings of the Student Senate are open to anyone on campus who feels the desire to attend and contribute constructive criticism or any ideas for the betterment of the Minot State College campus.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Joel A. Davy replaced E. R. Manning, who retired in May, 1965, as Director of Alumni Relations at Minot State College. Don Archie Peterson served as president of the Alumni Association this year.

Many are not aware that the association is a corporation. The name of the corporation was changed last fall to Minot State College Alumni Incorporated. Advantages of a corporation are its existence as a legal entity and the continuity thus insured.

Strengthening the association are the MSC clubs. Newest MSC Alumni Club is in the Bay area of San Francisco. Other clubs are located in Billings, Montana, and Minneapolis.

BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

The primary job of the Board of Publications is that of selecting the editors for the Beaver, the college yearbook; the Coup, the literary magazine and the Red and Green, MSC's newspaper.

Other tasks they undertake are those of improving staff wages, acting as a liaison between the publications and the administration, and giving assistance in any other way needed.

Members of the board are Lee Snyder, chairman; Kay Westlake, Joe Jacobson, Pat Huettl, Mrs. Muriel Turner, adviser, Dale Mattern and Joel Davy, administration representative.

Minot State College Beavers started the 1965-6 basketball season November 23 at Madison, South Dakota. General Beadle College dampened the opener by trouncing the Beavers 81-58. The South Dakota hospitality didn't improve the next night at Aberdeen when Northern State College dumped the Beavers with 81-52.

Moving to Carroll College in Havre, Montana, December 3 the Beavers again suffered a loss of 93-64. The next evening revealed another loss of 78-65 to Northern Montana College.

The Beavers opened at home by bombing Bismarck Junior College 92-74. Black Hills State College came to town for two games. Both teams won one game 77-66 for Minot and 78-69 for Black Hills. After three days of rest Minot came off second best against Wahpeton 85-64.

The next evening the Beavers lost a squeaker to Bismarck Junior College 77-76. During the Christmas season MSC placed second in a tournament at Chadron, Nebraska. Back in conference play the Beavers lost to Valley City 82-77, but recovered the next game to defeat Ellendale 88-71. It was followed by defeat at the hands of Dickinson 76-69, but a win over Mayville in a 74-72 point game.

Looks like these two could maybe find use for a crowbar.

Many students on campus who do not meet the requirements of the main teams are given ample opportunity to participate in various sports. This is done through intramural sports and numerous other organizations.

Tournaments are scheduled in baseball, basketball, bowling, curling, volleyball and football. Humor as well as interest is added by the selection of team names. Some of the more noted one are the Monster Mashers, Tootsie Rolls and Jelly Bellies.

Vance Elgie is the faculty organizer and champions of the year include the TKE fraternity in volleyball, M Club in basketball and the Lakers in football.

Matmen Win NDCAC Title

The 1965-66 Minot State College Wrestling Team completed another highly successful season with a 10-1 dual meet record, winning the North Dakota College Conference Championship for the second year in a row with 119 points. They also won the Valley City Invitational Tourney with six champions.

The potent Beaver squad had their dual meet string broken at 24 by powerful Montana State University at Bozeman January 28 as they bowed to this team 22-15.

With the caliber of wrestling improving each year in this area, Coach Hank Hettwer has assembled the finest wrestling talent Minot State has ever dressed in the green and white. His wrestlers hail from eight states: New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and North Dakota.

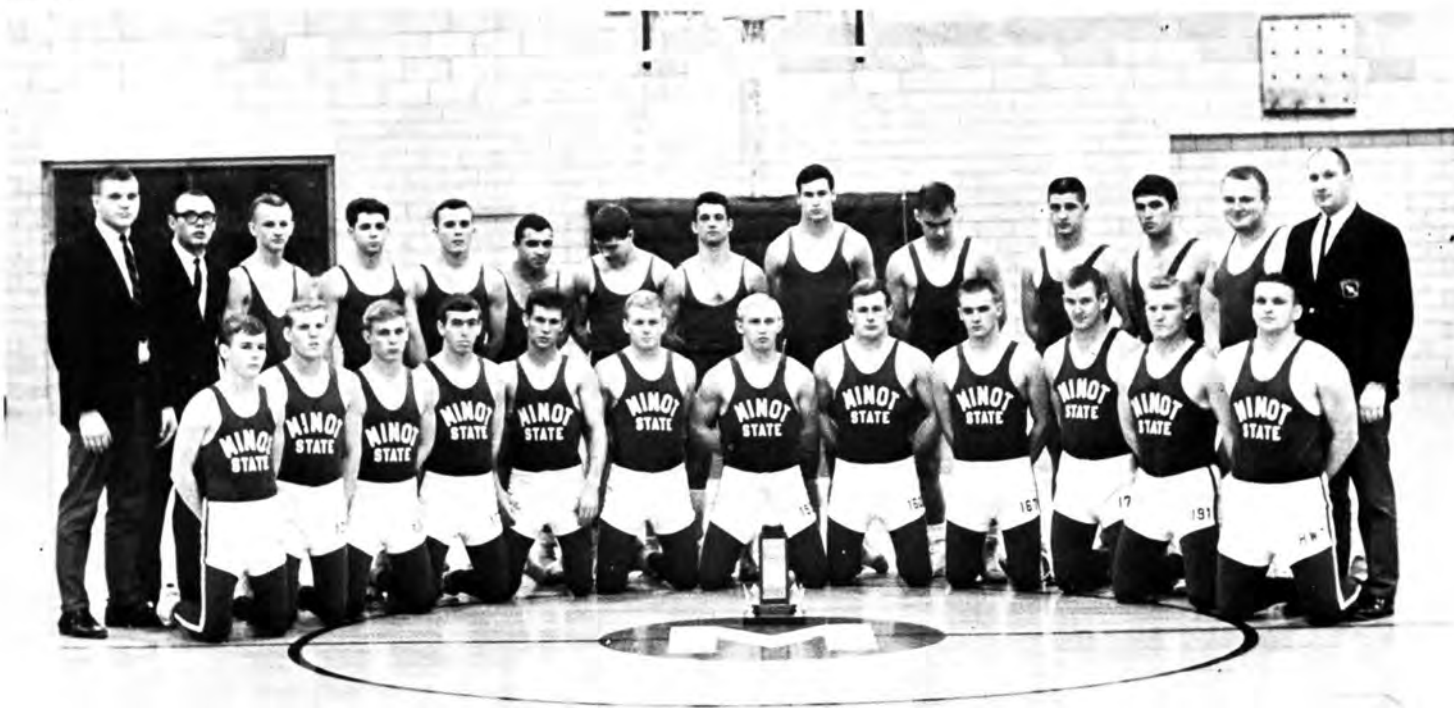

Along with the success of the varsity squad, the Beaver junior varsity has an undefeated string of 15 wins going for them the past two years.

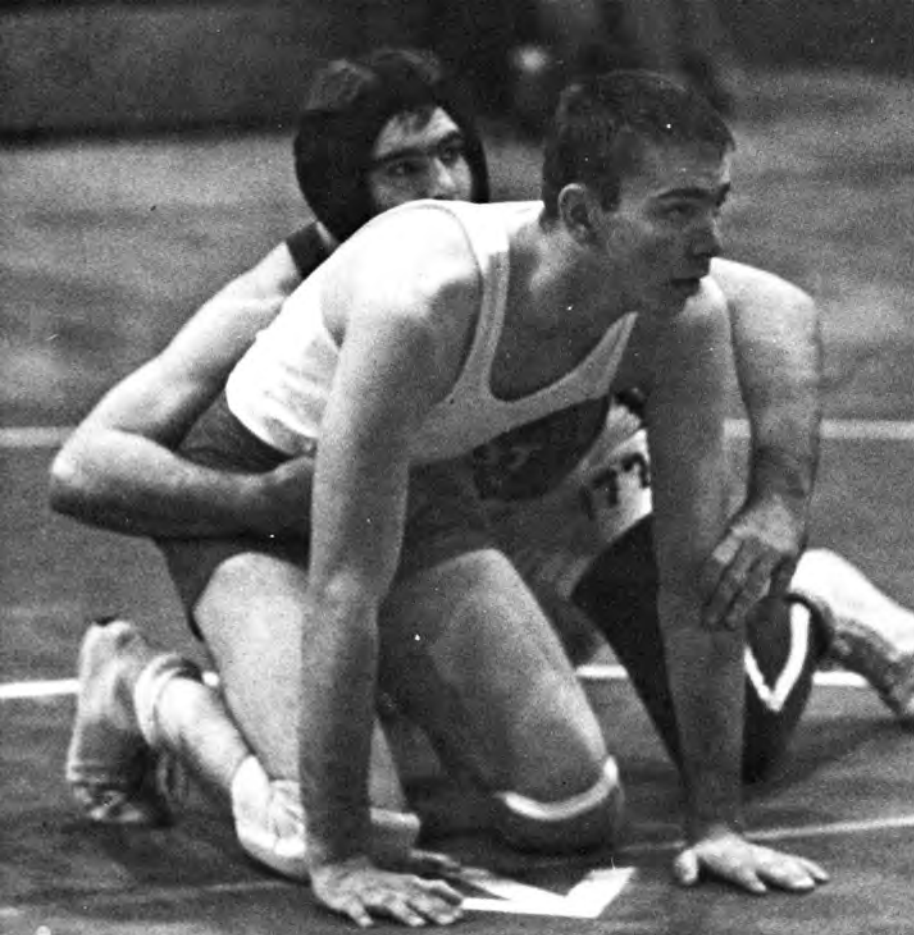

In winning the NDCAC Conference Championship the powerful Beaver squad sent 10 wrestlers into the finals and emerged with six individual champions.

Gymnasts Place High

Under the guidance of Miss Patricia Kempston, the members of the gymnastics team practiced daily. Their efforts were well rewarded by the recognition they received after performances during halftime at basketball games and other appearances throughout the state.

The gymnastics team participated in many state-wide competitions. They placed very high in all that they entered.

New Team Does Well

Minot State's four man tennis team finished second at the North Dakota College Conference tennis tournament, second at the Dickinson Invitational and the Mayville Quadrangular tournament. It finished third at the Jamestown Invitational and fourth at the Minot Tourney. The doubles showed their skill by reaching the finals in every meet but failed to take first.

The team also participated in the National Association of Intercollegiate Activities. Playoff May 14 and 15 at Dickinson and the conference meet at Mayville on May 21 and 22.

Playing on the doubles team are Charles Axness and Lowell Thomas, both freshmen from Minot. Number one and two men singles men include Roger Looyenga, a freshman and Frank Manolovitz a junior, both from Mandan.

Although the team did not finish with any first place trophies, it did well due to the fact that it was a young team. Last year's All Conference tennis champs, Gary Thune and Joe Lee, graduated leaving the team handicapped for experience.

This was also Coach Hettwer's first try at coaching tennis. Last year's tennis coach Moe Johnson is now coaching at Arizona State University, Flagstaff, Arizona.

The tennis team consisted of Charles Axness, Lowell Thomas, Coach Hank Hettwer, Roger Looyenga and Frank Manolovitz.

Golf Team Wins 5 of 6

This year's MSC Golf team season was termed successful according to top club man Jerry Fundingsland. The team participated in six meets during the year and captured five to win the National Association of Intercollegiate Activities District 12 Tournament.

Hopes were dimmed at one time when South Dakota Tech at Aberdeen beat Minot by 10 strokes in the Dickinson Invitational, but the powerful Beavers bounced back to outstroke Aberdeen by 6, to capture the District 12 Tourney.

After winning the conference, the team proceeded to Rockford, Illinois, to compete in the National Association of Intercollegiate Activities National Championships. Minot was optimistic, but the foreign grass took its prey, with the Beavers being eliminated in the first 36 holes by a small 3 strokes.

Mainstays of the team in winning the District 12 Tourney were Fundingsland, Gad, Wagner and Reslock.

Team Builds for Future

The Cross Country Track Team, although in a building year, clutched a third place in the conference. The carriers coached by Dave Hanson participated in four meets including the conference meet.

Pacing this year's team were senior Al Skarie and freshman Ron Klimpel. Also showing a lot of potential were Wilbur Spotted Wolf, Rick Johnson, Jerry McCarty and Steve Wood.

This year's team carried a Homecoming torch from Bismarck to Minot to kickoff the 1965 Homecoming festivities. This in the future will be an annual undertaking for the cross country team.

Rash of Injuries Plague Beaver 9

The Minot State Beavers started the season by winning the first 10 games and ending with a 24-6 season. The Beavers, coached by veteran John Greenslit, were blessed with one of the best baseball teams in recent MSC history.

The Beavers with batting champs Dick Belisle and Jan Olson along with the fine pitching of Jim Limke and Jim Everson came out on top in the Western half N.D.C.C. championships and went on to gain the N.A.I.A. District 12 championship.

In winning the District 12 tournament the Beavers were given the opportunity to represent MSC in the Area 3 Championship at Omaha, Nebraska. Prospects looked good until a rash of injuries virtually halted the Beavers.

Ace pitcher Jim Limke was taken ill on the trip to Omaha and had an appendectomy in Mitchell, South Dakota. Shortstop star and batting champ Dick Belisle was struck on the left shoulder by a pitch in the sixth inning of the first game and was sidelined thereafter. Catcher Stan Stokke aggravated a split finger suffered at Jamestown earlier, and left in the second inning of the second game. Outfielder Jan Olson batted a foul tip off his ankle early in that game and had to quit in the eighth.

The Beavers lost the first two games of the double-elimination playoff but ended with a good record. At times Coach John Greenslit had six freshmen on the field.

Graduates

When graduation is mentioned, one's first thoughts are those of nostalgia. He thinks of looking back at the fun, work and the close bonds of friendship that were made during his college life. He thinks of the worries of checking his major, minor and the required 197 quarter hours that he experienced just prior to the Big Day.

Realistically however, graduation is not a time for looking back; it is a time in one's life for looking forward. The goal of being a teacher, a medical technologist, a businessman or a part of some other vocation has already been set and achieved. The regrets and wishes are embedded into the past and cannot be changed.

Graduation is a time for putting away the dreams and taking out logic and practicality. The time has finally arrived when one must find his niche in life. He can no longer abandon a misled past or start over. He must take what he has learned and apply it to the challenges that he will face in the decades that lie ahead.

In looking ahead he sets new goals and attainments that will mold his success not for four years or until that Bachelor of science degree is earned, but the remainder of his life.

MSC's physical education department offers experience in football, baseball, basketball and many other sports to all those who qualify and are interested.

Green Uncertain Confident

Although the underclassmen include green freshmen, uncertain sophomores and confident juniors, they all receive the same opportunity to participate in activities. MSC offers advancement in many academic areas as well as the social areas. A minimum of "unionizing" is enriching to everyone, but the evils of studying and work cannot be overlooked.

Modern dance class aids students in acquiring grace and poise.

Labs are essential for medical technologists.

Students find the union a place to relax with a good book and a cup of coffee.

Study breaks allow time for a quick bottle of pop.

The Westland Story

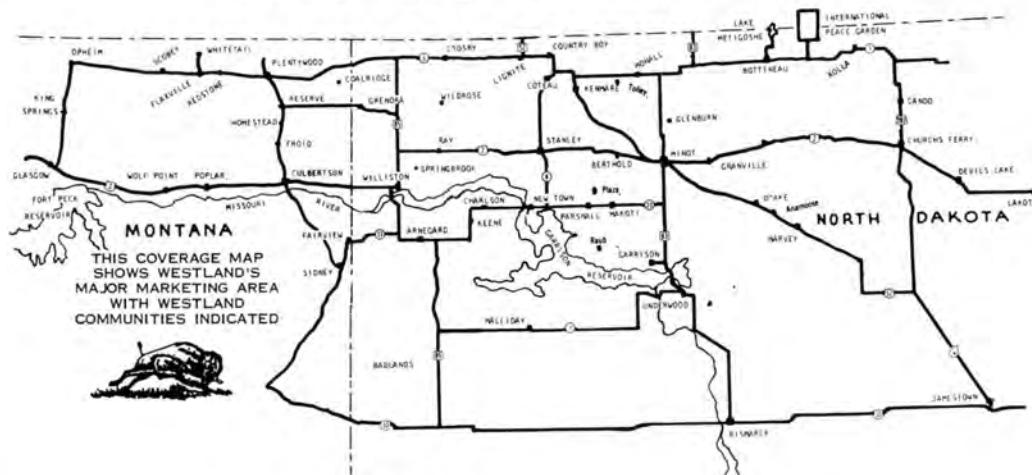

—IS ONE OF PEOPLE AND SERVICE.

PEOPLE, almost all of whom are local, who vision a future for their respective communities and this great plains area—people who in their own way and in accordance with their abilities contribute their talents and energies toward greater self and community development, and who, in customary fashion, generously respond to the call of humanitarian service. These are the people who comprise our Westland Family and in whom the company takes much pride.

SERVICE is our constant endeavor — service in a united effort by all in conducting the business of making and marketing the high quality petroleum products which Westland is privileged to dispense in ever increasing volume year after year.

WESTLAND—THE GROW COMPANY—NOW IN OUR 47th YEAR—HOME OWNED —INDEPENDENT.

Epilogue

To everyone who worked on the 1966 BEAVER the word "Finished" is said with few regrets. The hours of writing, typing, indexing and cropping are over for another and for some the last year. There will be no more tears or blood shed for the mistakes or the misunderstandings that go with the book.

To those who made "My Book" what it is I want to pay some special tribute.

CAROLYN: Some people say keeping the same job two years in a row is for the birds, but thank you for sticking it out and completing our agreement. You are to be commended on your indexing, typing and cheering ability.

JERRY: More than any other member of the staff, you are responsible for making this book what it is. When deadlines came you gave up fraternity and Gavel Club meetings, you wrote your copy and half of everyone else's too, and you gave me general sincere encouragement when the going got rough.

BILL: You were the speed demon who always managed to jump the gun and get your pages finished first, even if you were new to the entire yearbook business. Don't slow down, it's not worth it.

GORDON: You did a great job in the switch from sports to faculty and administration. I will never forget trying to decide how to get copy written for those last few pages.

MYRNA: That diamond on your left hand slowed you down a little, but your section came through with flying colors.

MELODEE: Thank you for taking the time out from debate to help us jot down the essential events that make copy worth reading. Good luck in your decision for next year, but don't forget about yearbooks.

JOHN: Thank you for doing a GREAT job on advertising. I never for one minute had to worry about your accomplishing your goal of setting a new record for ads sold. Keep on being a perfectionist, the advertisers appreciate it.

CHARLIE: We never did get your nickname down. You did a commendable job on matching names and faces, even if we did have a few extra names.

WAYNE: You sure knew how to get cooperation from the physical education department. Thanks for making your sports section what it is.

PRESIDENT LURA, MR. QUAM, LARRY EIDE, JOHN, KATHY, BARB, ALICE, TONY, AUDREY, AND JOE: I want to say a special thank you to you because, although you are not staff members as such, you helped to make the 1966 BEAVER possible.

LAST BUT BY FAR NOT LEAST—I want to say more than just thank you to you, Mrs. Turner. You spoiled me with all the gifts that meant so much, from the personal bookmark to the book. I sincerely hope that I haven't given you too many gray hairs, but that this last year is as memorable to you as it is to me.

There . . . I too am "Finished." I've put my thoughts, words, brain storms, and everything else I could together to make this book the best record possible. It may not make All-American, but it is the best I can do. Now take it, it's yours.

Sincerely,

Peggy Loveland
Editor-in-chief
1966 BEAVER
