

BALDWIN AND SHIRLEY MARTZ SCHOLARSHIP

This award is presented in the name of Baldwin and Shirley Martz, CPAs. Baldwin Martz served as Society president, in addition to serving on the Taxation, Government Accounting, Legislation, Relations with Bankers, and Nominations Committees. Shirley Martz served on the Professional Improvement & Welfare, Convention, Public Relations, Government Accounting, Accounting & Auditing, Nominations, MAP, and PD & CE committees.

Baldwin and Shirley both graduated from UND in May 1945. Baldwin became a staff accountant with E.W. Brady in Grand Forks. Shirley joined the accounting firm of Janz and Iverson in Minot. Their first year of marriage was spent in Grand Forks, with Baldwin continuing at the Brady firm, and Shirley teaching at UND as an instructor in the accounting department. At the end of 1947, they moved to Minot to become partners in the Janz & Iverson firm, which became Janz, Iverson & Martz. The senior partner, Roy Janz, died in 1951 and Baldwin became manager. Mr. Iverson left the firm in 1957, and the firm became Baldwin Martz & Associates. In 1981 Baldwin Martz & Associates merged with E.W. Brady & Co. of Grand Forks to become the present-day Brady Martz firm.

Baldwin retired from public accounting in 1985 and Shirley retired in 1989. Baldwin died in March 2000 and Shirley in 2011.
