

EDSON AND MARGARET LARSON FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Edson and Margaret Larson Foundation was established through the estate of Edson Larson. Edson and Margaret were married in 1955 at the Governor's mansion in Bismarck, N.D. Margaret's father, Clarence Norman Brunsdale, was North Dakota's governor at the time. They made their home in Mayville, where Edson farmed most of his life. Edson was proud of his accomplishments, serving in the armed forces, farming, and developing sharp investment skills. He was also proud to live in Mayville. He passed away in 2008. Margaret passed away on May 3, 2019.
