

JAN BARLOW SCHOLARSHIP

Jan (Ennis) Barlow was born and raised in Minot, ND. She graduated from Minot Model and Minot State College in 1961 with a degree in Elementary and Business Education. Jan married Arden Barlow in 1961. Arden also graduated from Minot Model and Minot State College in 1960 with a degree in Business Administration. Jan taught for a few years at Bel Air Grade School in Minot and then moved to Valley City where she was a teacher at Valley City High School and also chair of the Business Department. She owned the Valley City credit bureau and then became an agent for State Farm Insurance for many years. Jan currently serves on the MSU Board of Regents.

Jan's father, Harold B. Ennis, attended Minot State in the 1930s with help from an athletic scholarship. Harold received teaching certification in 1940. Jan's daughter, Beth Hardy, graduated from the MSU College of Business in 1992. Brandon Ball is taking classes at MSU making him the fourth generation of the family who has attended Minot State.
