MSIS SCHOLARSHIP

Dr. Lorraine (Lori) Willoughby currently serves as the Chair and Professor of Management Information Systems in the Business Information Technology Department, program director for the Master of Science – Information Systems, and the Assistant Dean of the Graduate School at Minot State University. Dr. Willoughby is a native of North Dakota who believes that everyone should have an opportunity to advance their education.

She holds a doctorate in Business Information Systems from Utah State University, a Master of Science – Business Education and Vocational Education from the University of North Dakota, and a Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of North Dakota. Dr. Willoughby has taught information systems courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.