

CONCENTRATION

Human Trafficking Awareness and Prevention

Make a difference

The criminal justice and social work programs at Minot State University have collaborated on a 12-credit Human Trafficking Awareness and Prevention Concentration to provide any major the ability to recognize and prevent human trafficking in their community. Topics include victim identification and crisis intervention from a trauma-informed lens. You can make a difference in ending human trafficking.

Learn to identify victims, respond with trauma-informed care, and help prevent trafficking in your community.
