

English Department Minutes for September 11, 2017

In attendance: Sarah Aleshire, Harold Nelson, Eric Furuseth, Ron Fischer, Patti Kurtz, Ash Bowen

Patti Kurtz reported that she and Robert Kibler met to discuss the department's course schedule, and several classes have been dropped from the schedule.

Kurtz also noted the need to find instructors to take an English 120 course as well as the department Tech Writing course.

Eric Furuseth announced that he would be meeting individually with all members of the English faculty to discuss changes to the existing curriculum. He stated that he would present a proposal/model to that end at a future date.

Harold Nelson suggested that any curriculum changes should follow the suggestion of the Department of Public Instruction.

Sarah Aleshire asked that all faculty members encourage their students to attend the various Wordstock events on campus during Notstock.
