

Countdown to Completion of Teacher Education degrees

MSU TE web page: https://www.minotstateu.edu/teu/current_students.shtml

Semester before Methods	Timeline	Completed
Delete/clean-up/change settings on social media	Before practicum starts
Continue attending Trauma-Sensitive Schools Training and upload certificates into SLL	The day before classes start and Assessment Day
Make sure you are admitted to TLP – Admission tab	March/October
Plan all of your remaining classes and have your advisor check it and compare with your Academic Requirements report in CC. Fall Experience (ED 324L) must be taken with methods or student teaching and only in a fall!	March/October
Register for methods classes/Fall Experience (if applicable). If you are not admitted to teacher education, to request permission to enroll- Admission to TLP tab	March/October
Attend methods orientation	March/October
Complete Methods/Fall Exp Clinical Request-Methods tab	April 1/November 1
Upload proof of your background check to SLL. No one may start methods placement without this.	April 1/November 1
Make sure you have completed your Early Level Transition Point Conference (ED 287) – ELT tab	May/December

Methods Semester	Timeline	Completed
Complete Fall Experience and record in SLL (if applicable)	September 15
Complete practicum and Methods Clinical VII in SLL	Due last week of classes
Complete Evidence of Student Learning in SLL	Due last week of classes
Semester before student teaching
Register for ED 407 (MLTP conference)	Registration
Attend Module Three/Four of Trauma-Sensitive Schools Training (if not already completed), upload into SLL	The day before classes start, Assessment Day
Apply for student teaching including filling out form and uploading Introduction Letter and advisor form in SLL	Friday of the first week of classes
Download/locate Student Teaching Handbook	Second week of classes
Attend Student Teaching Orientation Seminar	Second week of classes
Meet with Deb about requests for student teaching	January/September
Attend Fingerprinting seminar (not required for people with current sub licenses or alternative access licenses)	Third week of classes
Obtain Fingerprints for ESPB and put confirmation from ESPB (or sub license) in SLL. ESPB check is good for 18 months.	January/September
Obtain liability insurance and put in SLL	April/September
Take PLT (all but SPED) – save PDF for ESPB	Early fall/early winter
Take Praxis II content test – save PDF for ESPB	Early fall/early winter
Complete graduation application – eForm in Campus Connection	March/October

Countdown to Completion of Teacher Education degrees

Register for student teaching and ST seminar. Check ST handbook for clarification on your weeks/credits.	March/November
Inform Deb Ringham of 2 faculty who have agreed to your Mid-Level Transition Point meeting (not SPED, ELED, ECE, History). See Mid-Level Transition Conference tab	April/November
Complete Mid-level Transition Point with 2 faculty (ED 407)	May/December
Contact/meet cooperating teacher for student teaching	May/December
Email Deb Ringham with all planned absences for student teaching (travel for sports, conferences, graduation, etc.)	May/December

Student Teaching Semester	Timeline	Completed
Complete Fall Experience binder (if applicable)	September 15
Upload goals and introduction letter. Contact US.	First week
Upload hours from student teaching	weekly
Complete Mid-term Self-Evaluation halfway through each placement
Complete Module Five of Trauma Sensitive Training	In Student Teaching Seminar
Attend Professionalism and Licensing Seminar to learn about permanent licenses with ESPB	In Student Teaching Seminar
Complete Evidence of Student Learning in SLL	Nov 15/April 15
Complete Student Teaching activities in SLL: Final Evaluation, Final Narrative Assessment/goals, Feedback forms for US and CT, Dispositions, and Efficacy. Update final hours log.	Last week of placement
Apply for licensure! Application is here: https://secure.apps.nd.gov/dpi/ndteach/Login.aspx . Follow instructions here for transcripts (hold for degree posting) https://www.minotstateu.edu/records/transcripts.shtml	Last week of placement
Complete the Exit Survey that is emailed to you. We are required to send this as part of our accreditation.
Graduate and walk through graduation ceremony (May only)!	December/May Get a job and let us know where it is. We are required to keep track of you for three years. More importantly, we will rejoice!
Complete the Transition to Teaching survey in the spring of your first year of teaching. This will be emailed to you and is part of our accreditation process.		