

Minot State University presents data from the 2016-17 North Dakota State Assessment to demonstrate complete impact on P-12 student learning and development. The State Assessment is administered in grades four to eight in the areas of math, reading, and language.

The data represents fourth to eight grades results between three teacher groups: Minot State University first-year teachers, non-first year teachers, and all first-year teachers across the state.

Please see the link State Assessment Data for MSU Completers